Newsletter

Monday 17th October  Week Two  Term Four  2016

Principal's Note

Welcome to the newsletter for week 2.

It was lovely to see our students back at school last week, all smiling and happy. Week 1 was a very calm start to the term.

Thank you to those parents who came along last week for parent/teacher meetings with either me or Miss Heraghty. We appreciate you giving up your time to come along and chat about how your child is doing at school. If anyone was unable to come along and would like to have a chat about their child's progress, please contact me at school.

We have decided to continue the Chinese video conference each week and have paid for a 10 week course following the trial sessions last term. The senior students are studying China as a cross curricular topic this term and are really embracing learning the basics of another language.

PBL (positive behaviour for learning) continues to be a focus at school every day and we use as many opportunities as possible to bring the positive language into our daily routines.

I will be attending the Primary Principal's Annual State Conference in Sydney this week, from Wednesday to Friday. Mr Boller will take the senior students in my absence. Behaviour expectations while I am not at school are exactly the same as when I am at school.

Following the postponement of Troy Grant's visit to school last week, we have been given another date, Friday 18th November, when he is expecting to visit us. Please make a note of it in your diary!

Aussie Bird Count 2017

During National Bird Week, senior students will be encouraged to learn more about the birds they see and hear every day by participating in the 2017 Aussie Bird Count at school. The children will document and record the number and species of birds they see in a 20 minute period at school. Students will also be able to see live statistics on the number of birds and species counted right across Australia.

PBL Positive Behaviour for Learning

SAFE, RESPECTFUL, RESPONSIBLE

Students all know our key words and can explain what it means to be safe, respectful and responsible both in and out of the classroom.

This week our focus continues to be on 'movement'. Students discussed this last week and are putting into practise what we talked about.

Students know that they should line up quietly before entering the classroom.

Students who demonstrate the skill for the week will continue to be rewarded with green slips for our weekly draw.
